

- In order to join the game of Build your own internet (BOI) you need to
 - enters in the node number they received
 - select an group to join
 - joins the session
- The user must know the
 - node number
 - group
- To send a message
 - Send message
 - select the receiver of the message
 - type in the message
 - click the send message button
- The user must know the
 - receiver(s)
 - message
- To split message
 - open up the split message menu,
 - edit the message
 - send the split message of the the selected recipients of the message
- The user must know the
 - receiver(s)
 - message
- To Join message
 - select message to join
 - select the message to join
 - orders the message in the order he want them to be join to getter
 - add / remove message from the join menu
 - send of split messages
- must know about
 - Messages to join
- To encrypted message
 - click the encrypting
 - enter key for encrypting
 - replace the current message with the encrypted message
- must know about
 - Messages
 - key

- To decrypted message
 - select the message to decrypt
 - enter key for decryption
 - add result to the message list
- must know
 - key
 - message
- To add an checksum to message
 - add checksum to end of message after an :
- To check the checksum of message
 - select message to check
- must know
 - message
- To add a random number to the message
 - add a random number to the beginning of the message
- must know
 -